

Part-time Instructor – ARTS 122 & 123 (Drawing I & II) Dual Enrollment at Lakeview

Montcalm Community College is seeking candidates to teach part-time in our Art Program.

ARTS 122 – Drawing I

This course includes instruction in the basic drawing techniques of contour, gesture, shading, proportion and perspective. Studio work provides drawing experiences using a variety of subjects and materials.

ARTS 123 - Drawing II

This class continues the drawing techniques begun in ARTS 122. Contour, gesture, shading, proportion, and composition will be further explored using more complex subjects including still life, the human figure, landscape, and architecture. Technical issues as well as creative aspects, such as mood, emotion, and qualities of illumination will be reinforced and enriched. All students' work will be displayed and critiqued.

Qualifications:

- Master's degree from a regionally accredited university with a minimum of 18 graduate credit hours in the discipline
- Three years teaching experience, preferably post-secondary
- Commitment to community college philosophy
- Understanding of and experience with technology as a learning tool, both within and outside the classroom
